

TITLE: Making Team Work

SYNOPSIS: Teams form the core of any organizations and making teams work effectively provides one of the key strategies for organizations to improve performance and reach for excellence. But what contributes to effective teams and what differentiates one team from another. This workshop seeks to identify the critical elements for an effective work team and will explore each of the critical elements so as to equip team members with tools and techniques to create an outstanding work team and ensuring that the team works!

DURATION: One Day or Two Day

TARGET AUDIENCE: Teams, Supervisors, Executives, Managers

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

By the end of the program, participants will be able:

1. To explain and apply the key principles behind effective work teams
2. To apply the tools and templates to improve team performance.
3. To Increase the collaboration, reduce conflict and achieve more through the careful application of techniques and skills

PROGRAM CONTENTS:

- Team Effectiveness Evaluation
- The Team Effectiveness Performance Dimensions
- Goal Clarification as a Team
- Bridging Differences in the Team
- Building Relationships amongst Team members
- Solving Problems Innovatively as a Team
- Learning Continuously as a Team
- Moving forward as a Team